A core team

- All government departments required to have a data strategy in place by September 2019
- A small, core team developed the Global Affairs Canada data strategy, with inputs from across the Department.
- Approved by Deputy Minister September 2018

Layer 1: The broader team

- Data Strategy Working Group composed of representatives from five pillars:
 - 1. Culture
 - 2. Access & Analytics
 - 3. People
 - 4. Performance & Results
 - 5. Management & Governance.
- Core team coordinates, provides oversight and reports on progress

Layer 2: Internal stakeholders

- Global Affairs divided into branches
 - Each has developed a data plan; plans vary in maturity and granularity.
 - The data strategy team has met each branch to discuss challenges, opportunities, and next steps.
 - Meetings led by senior management.
- Engaging with Global Affairs' five main streams:
 - Foreign Affairs
 - International Trade
 - International Assistance/Development
 - Consular Services/Emergency Management
 - Corporate Services.
- Engaging with our 178 embassies, high commissions, consulates (in 110 countries)

Layer 3: Our wider network

- Actors across the Government of Canada (GoC)
- External organizations with mandates overlapping with Global Affairs' mandate (in Canada and abroad):
 - Non-governmental (NGOs)
 - Other governments and levels of governments
 - Intergovernmental organizations (IGOs)
 - Academia
 - Private sector
